

As seen in this chart of responses, we were very satisfied to reach diversity in age groups, with all groups being represented by over 10%. The main group reached was of ages 36-45, and the least represented was the youngest age group of 18-25.

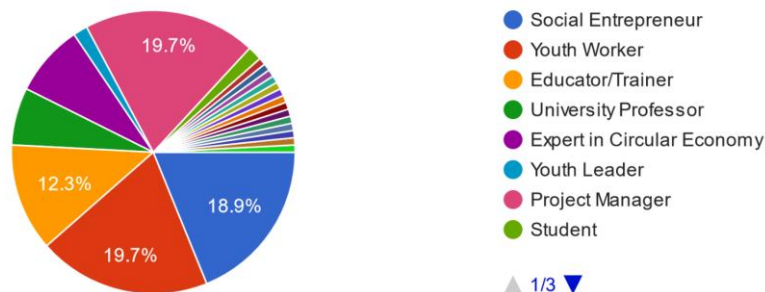

Education Level
122 responses

Regarding the education level of responders, we were satisfied to receive a very high level of responses with Bachelor's or higher degrees, with the significant share of others coming from Upper Secondary-educated participants. There was also a small representation of non-formal training, as well as >1% representation for other options.

Profession
122 responses

For responders' profession, the most common answers representing 19.7% equally, were Youth Workers and Project Managers, although practising Social Entrepreneurs were also well represented, along with an 8% response rate from self-declared circular economy experts.