

AI Pack

Upstage offers 3 AI packs that process unstructured information and data, making a tangible impact on your business

	OCR	Recommendation	Product semantic search
Pack	A solution that recognizes characters in an image and extracts necessary information	A solution that recommends the best products and contents	A solution that enables semantic search, analyzes and organizes key information in unstructured text data into a standardized form (DB)
Application	Applicable to all fields that require text extraction from standardized documents, such as receipts, bills, credit cards, ID cards, certificates, and medical receipts	Applicable to all fields that use any form of recommendation including alternative products, products and contents that are likely to be purchased next	Applicable to all fields that deal with various types of unstructured data containing text information that require semantic search and conversion into a DB
Highlight	Achieved 1 st place in the OCR World Competition The team includes specialists who have presented 14 papers in the world's most renowned AI conferences	Team with specialists and technologies that received Kaggle's Gold Medal recommendation (Education platform) Proven superior performance of more than 170% compared to other global top-tier recommendation models	Creation of the first natural language evaluation system in Korean (KLUE) World's No.1 in Kaggle text embedding competition in E-commerce subject (Shopee)